Ardeth #02 (I - Spring 2018) Feb 22 2022 In the last fifteen years we witnessed a new ethnographic wave of studies that focused on practising architecture. This body of research aimed at grasping the socio-material dimension of architectural practice. They all relied on the assumption that architecture is collective but it is shared with a variety of nonhumans. These "new ethnographies" generated "thick descriptions" of the knowledge practices of different participants in design. This issue of "Ardeth" collects contributions that will address the ecology of contemporary architectural practice, scrutinizing it as involving actors with variable ontology, scale and politics; exploring empirically different formats of design and reflecting on the importance of ethnography for understanding contemporary architectural practices.

Mediterranean Cities and Island Communities

Oct 01 2022 This book addresses the issue of smart and sustainable development in the Mediterranean (MED) region, a distinct part of the world, full of challenges and risks but also opportunities. Above all, the book focuses on smartening up small and medium-sized cities and insular communities, taking into account their geographical peculiarities, the pattern of MED urban settlements and the abundance of island complexes in the MED Basin. Taking for granted that sustainability in the MED is the overarching policy goal that needs to be served, the book explores different aspects of smartness in support of this goal's achievement. In this respect, evidence from concrete smart developments adopted by forerunners in the MED region is collected and analyzed; coupled with experiences gathered from successful, non-MED, examples of smart efforts in European countries. More specifically, current research and empirical results from MED urban environments are discussed, as well as findings from or concerning other parts of the world, which are of relevance to the MED region. The book's primary goal is to enable policymakers, planners and decision-making bodies to recognize the challenges and options available; and make to more informed policy decisions towards smart, sustainable, inclusive and resilient urban and regional futures in the MED.

The Fourth Industrial Revolution Oct 28

2019 World-renowned economist Klaus Schwab, Founder and Executive Chairman of the World Economic Forum, explains that we have an opportunity to shape the fourth industrial revolution, which will fundamentally alter how we live and work. Schwab argues that this revolution is different in scale, scope and complexity from any that have come before. Characterized by a range of new technologies that are fusing the physical, digital and biological worlds, the developments are affecting all disciplines, economies, industries and governments, and even challenging ideas about what it means to be human. Artificial intelligence is already all around us, from supercomputers, drones and virtual assistants to 3D printing, DNA sequencing, smart thermostats, wearable sensors and microchips smaller than a grain of sand. But this is just the beginning: nanomaterials 200 times stronger than steel and a million times thinner than a strand of hair and the first transplant of a 3D printed liver are already in development. Imagine "smart factories" in which global systems of manufacturing are coordinated virtually, or implantable mobile phones made of biosynthetic materials. The fourth industrial revolution, says Schwab, is more significant, and its ramifications more profound, than in any prior period of human history. He outlines the key technologies driving this revolution and discusses the major impacts expected on government, business, civil society and individuals. Schwab also offers bold ideas on how to harness these changes and shape a better future—one in which technology empowers people rather than replaces them; progress serves society rather than disrupts it; and in which innovators respect moral and ethical boundaries rather than cross them. We all have the opportunity to contribute to developing new frameworks that advance progress.

La casa di vetro Aug 26 2019 Gianni Di Giovanni e Stefano Lucchini lo vivono ogni giorno nell'impresa in cui operano: l'avvento della Rete ha completamente sovvertito le regole di comunicazione delle aziende grandi e piccole e, di conseguenza, la professione di chi è chiamato a informare il mercato e a interagire con esso, in momenti anche di crisi. E non è solo una questione di strumenti, ma soprattutto di atteggiamento: l'impresa è trasparente, sotto gli occhi di tutti, sottoposta a uno scrutinio continuo delle sue azioni e della sua reputazione e non può sottrarsi alla sfida della credibilità. Lo sviluppo dei mezzi di comunicazione, infatti, non ha accresciuto solo il volume delle informazioni trasmesse, ma anche la rete di relazioni che le imprese intrattengono con il mondo esterno e la comunicazione è così diventata una pratica sociale attraverso cui si entra in contatto con i pubblici più disparati, ai quali i comunicatori devono offrire una "realtà" fatta di credibilità, autorevolezza, competenza. Con approccio ottimistico ma consapevole della sfida, gli autori, due tra i maggiori esperti italiani di comunicazione d'impresa, analizzano uno per uno gli attori e le questioni cruciali del nuovo contesto (da Wikileaks ai motori di ricerca, dall'informazione online ai social network) condividendo riflessioni, strategie e casi pratici per gestire con successo la conversazione con il mercato.

Six Thinking Hats Sep 19 2021 The classic work about meetings and decision-making. Meetings are a crucial part of all our lives, but too often they go nowhere and waste valuable time. In Six Thinking Hats, Edward de Bono shows how meetings can be transformed to produce quick, decisive results every time. The Six Hats method is a devastatingly simple technique based on the brain's different modes of thinking. The intelligence, experience and information of everyone is harnessed to reach the right conclusions quickly. These principles have been adopted by businesses and governments around the world, ending conflict and confusion in favour of harmony and productivity. The Six Hats strategy will fundamentally change the way you work and interact. 'An inspiring man with brilliant ideas. De Bono never ceases to amaze with his clarity of thought.' Sir Richard Branson Cercatori di felicità Jun 28 2022 Quali possibilità di "riconoscersi" ha un popolo che ha perduto la propria patria, che è sul punto di perdere la propria lingua e che ovunque si stabilisca, in Europa, è considerato straniero, vessato e trattato in modo ostile, oppure, in America, costretto a un traumatico processo di omologazione? La letteratura, certo, la narrativa, i romanzi, i racconti: ma questo varrà solo per pochi acculturati. Bisognerà, quanto meno, che tale messe di ricordi, memorie, documenti e affabulazioni, trovi il modo di farsi spettacolo, di rappresentarsi sui palcoscenici, offrendosi prima di tutto nella vivezza concreta dell'invenzione teatrale; poi, successivamente, nel cinema, nei film. Questo volume a più voci racconta per la prima volta con cura l'avventuroso rapporto tra il teatro yiddish e il cinema, intendendo con ciò il dialogo tra le due arti e le rispettive prospettive critiche. Il tutto con riferimento ad alcune decine di film che oggi si possono vedere in edizione restaurata.
